Adolescent Reading Intervention for Grades 5–12,
A Third Quest Supplement

LEARN TO TEACH THE PROGRAM WITH FIDELITY

This explicit reading intervention employs scientifically based reading research in a motivating context. Students systematically work on Word Study exercises (rebuilding foundational reading skills), building fluency, engaging in building sophisticated vocabulary, narrative and informational passage reading, and comprehension building.

SESSION AND REGISTRATION INFO.

- August 6: One 2.5-hour session from 12 pm to 2:30 pm Pacific (3 pm to 5:30 pm Eastern)
- Registration includes Training Manual, Student Logbook, and Sample Lessons
- For participants already training and implementing The Third Quest or for those who wish Parallel Universe training only

LIVE VIA ZOOM

Marilyn will train via Zoom. You will learn about:

- Programming and rationale
- Implementation options
- Teaching the program and cheerleading
- Problem solving with internal progress monitoring

NOTE: Training will not be recorded, so please plan to attend the live meeting.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Educators—teachers, specialists, instructional assistants, literacy coaches, and administrators

RESULTS ARE PALPABLE AND MEASURABLE

“My son always checked out books, but they stayed in his backpack. Now he reads them!” —Parent, PA

Student Logbook, Coach's Manual, Video Lessons

RESEARCH SNAPSHOT

From the most recent meta-analysis of tutoring research: “PreK–12 tutoring interventions—defined here as one-on-one or small group instructional programs—rank among the most widespread, versatile, and potentially transformative instruments in today’s educational toolkit” (Nickow, Oreopoulos, & Quan, 2020).
